VISION

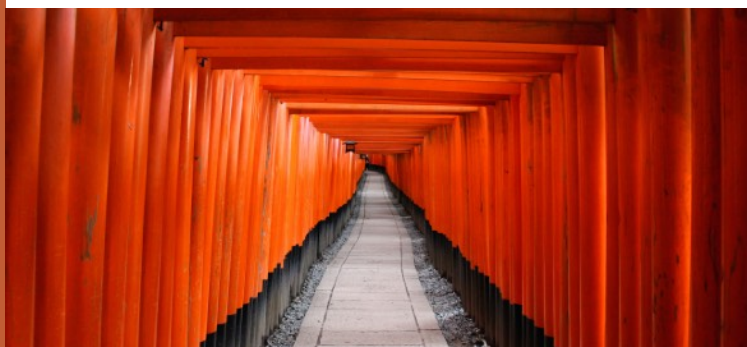

To witness God's kingdom in darkest places.

Christ's love to where He is least known.

MISSION

To make disciples that will respond to the Great Commission and be willing to go beyond their comfort zones.

To go cross-culturally and be the light that represents Christ, and the voice that tells that Jesus is alive.

Expect great things from God.
Attempt great things for God.

William Carey

FROM HERE TO THERE

Japan becomes nearer than ever!

This month, I started to talk with Japanese through an online language exchange app. I met them, heard their thoughts, learned their culture, and shared my faith in Jesus. They are closer than I thought they were.

It made me think about the Great Commission. How it becomes an option to me rather than a command from the King. Jesus said, "Those who love their life will lose it, and those who care nothing for their life will keep it (John 12:25)."

What if we, who know and love the Lord, become intentional about sharing Jesus Christ to those who have not heard it. What would the world look like now? How much difference will it make?

Jesus did not ask us to change the world by ourselves but to obey Him as He advances His Kingdom through us.

We can do something from here to the ends of the earth. But, are we willing?

Why Japan?

"A new command I give you:
Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another."

John 13:34-35

"All God's giants have been weak men who did great things for God because they reckoned on God being with them."

Hudson Taylor

When I think of Japanese, a word comes to mind, polite. As I have chatted with them, I experienced their politeness, their willingness to listen, and their desire to be heard as well. I made friends who are genuinely want to help me improve my Japanese.

They are good people!

Japan has 127 million people

97.9% of Japanese haven't heard the Gospel

21,000 thousand people commit suicide every year

Every day people are dying without the chance of hearing what Jesus did for them.

Have they been forgotten? Or they have been ignored?

Milestones & Updates

• Asian Access (A2) Family

Finally, I got accepted to be a worker of Asian Access in Japan! Same time last year was the first time I met Robert as we discussed my heart for Japan, and after a year, I become a part of their family as the first Asian, who is not Japanese, that will be joining the team. It is amazing how God brought me so far.

• SIMCO (SIM Candidate Orientation) and God's Favor

A month long training will start at the end of August as preparation and training for the field and my journey as a worker. God has given amazing favor and my employer has allowed me to do the training, and do my work after.

• Project Ablaze

We are very excited to have new mission coaches from Iris Global who commits to coach young generations who have hearts for God's global mission. I am very excited about this partnership. I have been in awe of what God has been doing through their ministry.

Hi, I'm Hanna Rose

I'm born and raised in a small province in the middle part of the Philippines.

In September 2015, I volunteered with Metro World Child, a faith-based organization that reaches out to children in slum places in Manila. We reached about a couple of thousand kids a week and taught them about Jesus and the Bible.

In four months with them, I witnessed poverty and brokenness. I walked with kids, played with them, listened to their stories, and fall in love with them, a love I never thought I have. They taught me so much about love and generosity. I never thought those kids who barely have anything are willing to give what little they have to us.

Those kids didn't care how much we know, but by how much we care for them. A third of the world has little to no access to the Gospel. They don't care how much we know about our God, but how much we live what we know.

Journey with me

In Prayer

- Pray for Me

Please pray for physical and mental strength as my training will start at 6:00 am, and I have to work afterward.

Please also keep my parents in prayer as Covid is also rising in our area.

- Pray for Next Generation Workers

I have been attending worker meetings, and I noticed that few very young people are going out to share the Gospel. Please pray that the next generation will be compelled by love and will be willing to go for God.

- Pray for Workers on the Field

Due to Covid-19, the workers have been having a hard time than ever. Please pray for strength and God's love for them.

If you know anyone on the field, please send them your love and encouragement. That would mean a lot for them.
